YOU ARE A TAXPAYER - ARE YOU A MEMBER?

The Newton Taxpayers' Association will shortly undertake a campaign for membership in the local organization which should be of interest to every taxpayer in the community. The Newton association, sponsored a few years ago by a group of prominent and civic-minded citizens, is affiliated with the State Federation of such associations. During the past few years the Federation has concentrated upon an attitude of helpfulness to many state officials, legislators, and city and town officials. Local associations have played an important part, both in their own locality, and in support of the state-wide

Present day tax problems are of such vital interest to everyone that at least every family in Newton should have at least one membership if possible. With local, county, state and national government costing more and more as the years go by the situation is becoming more acute. Only through the concentration of attention upon various phases of taxation and through education of the public which pays these taxes, directly or indirectly, can there be any relief. The Taxpayers' Association has for its main objective a diligent endeavor to see that government is operated on a conscientious, economical, and humanitarian basis. It is in no sense a charity but a protective and civic-minded organization working for the benefit of its members and of every other citizen. Your membership will help to make its work more effective. If you are not a member there is no valid reason, for your own good, why you should not be. Join now!

THE START OF ANOTHER YEAR

With this issue the Newton Graphic begins its sixty-seventh year of continuous publication of a community newspaper. Although established as the Newton Republican the present name was chosen a few years later. During these years Newton has had a tremendous growth, and many important events have taken place in its development. And it is with some natural pride that we feel that we, and those who have gone before us, have played some part in the forward progress made by the various sections of the city. For many years the Newton Graphic has had for its aim the promotion of civic interest and the betterment of the community welfare. We realize that in this ideal and in the publication of a newspaper for the community that we have no small obligation to meet. We are confident that, in part at least, we are meeting this obligation as indicated by the assurances of good will expressed occasionally by many of our readers. Now, as we start another year, we look forward, not only for twelve months, but for many times twelve months, offering to the citizens of Newton a community newspaper of value and interest to them and to their neigh

"Pageants are of tremendous civ value." said Mr. Percy Jewell Burre Director last winter of Newton's Se qui-Centennial Pageant, in speaking the Newton Rotarians. eon meeting on Monday, at the Brae-burn Golf Club. "Many a town has become a different place after the co-operative effort of its citizens has co-operative effort of its citizens has produced a successful pageant." In one town, Mr. Burrell said, that time after its pageant was reckoned not as B.C. and A.D., but as "B.P." and "A.P." (before and after the pageant). A pageant, to be a success, according to Mr. Burrell, doesn't have to have any particular talent, but absolutely necessary is the combined efforts of a great many people, all citizens of the place. In one town of 8000 inhabitants, more than 1000 took part in the local pageant.

Out of the pageant at Warwick, Eng. Out of the pageant at Warwick, Eng., a generation ago, came the impulse to Warwick in our own Berkshires to commemorate their 200 years of town history; and since that time, America has become pageant-conscious. "A good pageant," continued the speaker, "is a powerful historical object lesson which every community needs."

One of the most eloquent testimonies paid the value of pageants was that of Mayor Kiel, of St. Louis, in 1914, who said that the great St. Louis pageant had aroused civic consciousness to such an extent that, in consequence, the city got a new charter and

Mr. Burrell gave many other specific examples of what pageants had done for places, both large and small. A number of charming anecdotes from his experiences of thirty years in directing pageants much amused his hearers.

Mr. Hassler Capron, who has worked with Mr. Burrell in a number of his pageants, and whose classification in Rotary is "Dramatic and commercial lighting," introduced the speaker, who

Camp Quinapoxet Closes "High Adventure" Season

Fire, relayed by runner, from the summit of Mount Monadnock to Camp Quinapoxet, fourteen miles away, in one hour and forty-five minutes, started the final adventure of the 1939 season for Newton and Cambridge Scouts. The torch was then applied to a barbecue fire over which a hundred pound by the pound of the pound o

At seven o'clock the following evening, the final banquet began with Jay W. Clements, Camp Director, in charge. A sumptuous dinner was served and then came the long-awaited awards of the season, many of which went to Newton Scouts.

During the summer, Camp Quinapoxet boys have concentrated on learning those skills which are usually above average Scouting. Counselors emphasized training in cooking, pioneering, camping, mapping, safety and first aid. Many of these counselors are from Norumbega Council and include Augustin Root, Waban; Ernest Gould, Wellesley; Ross McLean, West Newton; William Allison, Wellesley; and Edwin C. Goodall, Jr., Newton Centre.

The success of the 1938 season of Camp Quinapoxet has been largely due to the efforts of such men as Albert C. Blunt, Jr., President of Norumbega Council; Henry T. Dunker in charge of Senior Program; and Samuel Party At Personally, we believe that Adolph Hitler and his advisors are not foolish enough to start another horrible war because unless Germany could win decisively within a few months she would again be defeated, and the carnage would be terrible. It is a safe bet that if Der Fleuhrer were still a corporal and had to march into the front line trenches, there would be no war.

Driving along Route 128 in Needham last Monday afternoon we observed a large percentage of Edison poles along the highway bearing small posters advocating the re-election of Governor Hurley, and they were the only political advertising on the poles. On Tuesday we observed similar Hurley campaign cards on poles along the Worcester turnpike between Wellesley and Worcester. It is common knowledge that it is against the law to affix any advertising matter, political or otherwise to poles of public utility companies along highways. So, it does not redound to Governor Hurley's credit when he permits this wholesale violation of the law in connection with his campaign. As Chief Executive of this Commonwealth, he years ago, it was reported to the Geological Society of America by Professor E. H. Sellards of the University of Texas discloses.

Professor Sellards studied the bones of five prehistoric elephants which, with three primitive spears and an implement used for scraping animal hides, were discovered in a filled-in water hole on a wheat ranch in Roberts county, about 75 miles northeast of Amarillo.

Professor Sellards found that three of the elephants were mature or nearly mature individuals, and that two were young.

It is difficult to determine, he explains, how the remains of the elephants were preserved at a common level in the water hole. There is no indication that the elephants were trapped.

"The animals do not seem to have been bogged, because none of the leg bones was found in vertical position," the report continues. "On the contrary, all were lying horizontal. If the animals bogged, they were pulled out of the mud to be skinned. If overtaken by a storm, it would seem that the elephants would have taken refuge in canyons—if canyons then existed on the plains—rather than in a sink of this kind.

From Sports to Showers

After strenuous activity, whether exercise or work, the very thought of soap and water is refreshing. No wonder we dash from the tennis court or golf links straight for the shower, the rubdown, and clean clothes! Warm water relaxes tense muscles. A bubbling lather of soap cleanses the skin of soil, dead cells and impurities are thrown off through the pores. The final cool or cells and impurities are thrown off through the pores. The final cool or cold splash stimulates. After drying with fresh towels and getting into immaculate undergarments, we ex-perience a perfect sense of well-being, a feeling of power that wel-comes challenge in work or play.

Highest Navigable Lake

The highest steam-navigated lake in the world is Titicaca, laying partly in Peru and partly in Bolivia. The level of the lake is 12,545 feet above the sea. It is about 145 miles long and 69 miles wide, and is divided into two unequal parts by the peninsula of Copacabana. The southern division is called the Lake of Huaqui, and is united to the larger body by the narrow strait of Tiquina. Ten miles from the southern shore of the lake are located the famous ruins of Tiahuanaco.

Meaning of 'Sub Rosa'

From earliest times the rose has been the symbol of silence and secrecy, and anything heard "subrosa," or under the rose, was supposed to be held in confidence, says Collier's Weekly. The Athenians wore the flower in heir hair when telling secrets and, during the Midele ages, countless banquet halls and dining rooms had roses painted on the ceilings as a reminder to guests. In the Sixteenth century, roses were even hung over many confessionals.

"Man" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in Churches of Christ, Scientist, throughout the world, on Sunday, September 4.

The Golden Text is: "Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will be still praising thee... O Lord of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in thee" (Psalms 84:4, 12).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ" (Galatians 4: 6, 7).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Jesus acknowledged no ties of the flesh. He said: 'Call no man your father upon the earth: for one is your Father, which is in heaven.' Again he asked: 'Who is my mother, and who are my brethren,' implying that it is they who do the will of his Again he asked: 'Who is my mother, and who are my brethren,' implying that it is they who do the will of his Father. We have no record of his calling any man by the name of father. He recognized Spirit, God, as the only creator, and therefore as the Father of all' (p. 31).

Noah Was First Roman. Summer Union Services Not Romulus of Legend

From no less an authority than Professor Luigi Huetter, German archeologist, comes the surprising information that Noah was the first of the Romans. In fact, Noah was the founder of Rome—not, as leg-of the Romans. In fact, Noah was the founder of Rome—not, as legend has it, Romulus.

It seems, according to the learned professor, that after his misguided descendants—Noah's, that is—had built the Tower of Babel, Noah took a ship with his sons and landed in sunny Italy. And there on the Palatine hill he founded a city to which he gave his name. He died soon afterwards.

Then Ham, with a son of Japhet and another individual named Cames, who was there already, built another city called Janiculum on the Palatine hill. About that time, too, Nimrod came to Italy and built his city on the Capitol hill; then Hercules and Tibris and Evander and others, all founded cities within Roman territory on the famous seven hills.

John Amendola, 29, of 190r Adams st., Nonantum, was found guilty in the Newton court last Friday of stealing gas over a considerable period from the Boston Consolidated Gas Company. Judge Patrick Duane of Waltham placed Amendola on probation when the defendant agreed to make restitution to the gas company to the amount of $75. Inspector Hammel of the Newton police and George Holmes, a gas company employee, testified that they had gone to Amendola's home where there had been no gas meter for years, and found gas had been piped to the kitchen range from the company's service pipe which entered the house.

Vandals Destroy

Boyd Park Shelter

A shelter at Boyd Park Playground, Newton, was deliberately pulled down last Thursday night by a group of youths. The shelter was located at the southerly part of the playground and it will cost $250 to replace it. The gang which destroyed the shelter kept tugging at the uprights until the structure toppled over. Patrolman Foley and Sergeant Bannon have been investigating the act of vandalism and have obtained the names of the youths allegedly involved. Some reside in Newton in the neighborhood of the playground, and others reside nearby in Watertown. Supt. Ernst Hermann of the Newton playgrounds states the youths involved will not be prosecuted if they and their parents make restitution for the cost of the shelter. Otherwise the police will obtain complaints against those involved.

Wants Water Main

Wants Water Main To Oak Hill

Water Commissioner Joseph Murray has suggested to Mayor Childs that the Water Department should start work in the near future on the construction of a 12 inch water main to Oak Hiil. The main would start at the pumping station at Upper Falls and be laid under Christina, Bernard, Wallace and Winchester sts. to a point opposite the Working Boys' Home. The distance would be 7300 feet, the cost about $36,500 and 35 men would be employed on the project for several months. Eventually it is planned to extend the main to Dedham st. Because of the rapid growth of the Oak Hill section, a larger main is needed to provide adequate fire protection and ample pressure for household supply.

Slight Increase In Newton Building

During the month of August, 87 per mits were issued by the Newton Public Buildings Department with an estimated value of work to be done of $35,967. This is an increase of about $31,000 over the amount of building started under permits issued in July, but $40,000 less than the estimated cost of work done under per mits issued in August of last year. Of the permits 17 were for single dwellings, valued at $97,000, and four for two-family dwellings valued at $26,000. Over half of the estimated value of the August building permits was the result of the permit issued for the new nurses home at Newton Hospital which will cost to build about $185,000.

In numerous instances new store fronts have been completed and in the various business sections of the city increased activity and sales are already noted. Our advertising columns this week are worthy of the attention of those who are seeking essentials for comfortable home living. One of the most helpful aids to shopping in the Newton Corner section was the completion of an adequate parking space where one can park for an unlimited time free from fear space where one can park for an unlimited time free from fear space where one can park for an unlimited time free from fear space where one can park for an unlimited time free from fear space where one can park for an unlimited time free from fear space where one can park for an unlimited time free from fear the highlights of the political campaign as far as local interest goes is the radio broadcast of Mayor Edwin O. The entrance to the parking space is readily found, by turning off Washington street at the theatre and making a right turn, on Pearl street, near the corner of Galen street.

A POLITICAL ERROR

It is with growing concern that we witness the ever-increasing desecration of the lawns of Newton homes and undeveloped properties through the display of political signs. Nearly everyone knows the extent to which political signs are displayed in many sections of Boston and in some suburban localities. Nearly everyone would be aghast and dismayed to find a similar situation existing in this city. As yet we have seen no such sight, but we view with apprehension any trend toward this end. Recently on Commonwealth avenue on the lawn in front of a residence there appeared a political sign in behalf of one of the Republican candidates for Lieutenant Governor. It is our belief, as well as that of many others, that the display of this sign will turn more votes away from that particular candidate than almost any other political maneuver that he might make in the "Garden City of Homes."

SCHOOL DAYS

School days are here again. Next Monday some twelve thousand Newton children will resume their search for education in the primary and secondary grades of our public schools, and in the grades of numerous private educational institutions. To many of them it is a new adventure as they either enter school for the first time or as they enter a higher school that gives them greater opportunities. Education is one of the most important phases of human life, and yet too many times we are apt to pass it over with little concern or with indifference as to its results. As school resumes it would be well for us as parents to give, in general, more co-operation and interest in our schools, its teachers and its administrative

AN INTERESTING CONTRAST

A reader asked us the other day if we had noted the contrast between the observance of Labor Day and of July 4th. On Labor Day almost everyone had a good time without fear of injury or burns from explosives or other noise-making activities of the Fourth. The question was raised as to whether or not a holiday like Labor Day, when quietness prevailed, was of more value to human life than one spent in the display of noisy patriotism. There is little doubt that such a subject would provoke considerable difference of opinion and might result in prolonged debate. At least, however, it is an interesting

We all went on a picnic "Labor Day." All the daddies on our street didn't have to work. Should think everybody would have to work on that day, instead of stay at home. Daddy says he works harder on days he coesn't have to work than on days he does. That's as clear as mud to the commonwealth ave., Newton Centre.

The uncertainty of life entered the The uncertainty of life entered the local political arena this past ten days with the death of Maxham E. Nash of Framingham. Mr. Nash, a prominent attorney and former chairman of the Framingham Republican Town Committee, was the lone opponent of State Senator Arthur W. Hollis of Newton, for the Republican nomination. Senator Hollis will have a Democratic opponent in Joseph Sleeper of Framingham but as the district is normally Republican the veteran Newton Senator should have little difficulty in being returned to office.

The chief development of local policial interest, however, was the meet The chief development of local political interest, however, was the meeting on Tuesday night conducted by the Republican City Committee at the Newton Library building. Twenty-six of the candidates to be voted upon in Newton attended. The purpose of the meeting was to acquaint members of the committee with the candidates, although many were present who were not members of the local Republican organization. Although Newton residents are keenly interested in the campaign of their fellow townsman. Saltonstall, they were pleased to hear Richard Whitcomb and Frederick Butler who attended the affair. The fireworks of the evening, however, were furnished by Robert Bradford, candidate for the nomination as District Attorney of Middlesex County, and his opponent, the present D. A., Warren L. Bishop. Bradford flayed Bishop's conduct of the office, his selection of a "mateur detectives," which he claimed cost the county $340,000, and generally "hand-picked investigating bureau of amateur detectives," which he claimed cost the county $40,000, and generally criticised other of Bishop's actions. Bishop defended his record, related his efforts in capturing Simpson, slayer of two Newton policemen, and stated that, formerly a Democrat, he left that party on a moral issue when the Boston police strike was defended in the

Francis and Clarence S. Luitwieler are being opposed by two well-known aldermen. Paul B. Goddard and John Temperley. The outcome of this contest is almost unpredictable with each one of the four having a chance at being one of the two nominees. Representative Francis, being first on the ballot, has an advantage which, together with an excellent record in his first term as a member of the Legislature, should make his return to office almost a certainty. Should he run third in the contest it would be a decided upset. This possibility, although unlikely, could only occur through the "bulleting" of many voters for one of the other three candidates. Chief interest in the contest lies in the outcome of Representative Luitwieler's closest friends and associates have endeavored to induce him to retire but like many political office holders he believes that he will be renominated. Alderman Goddard has a widespread acquaintanceship in the district and is making his first venture into a wider political arena. Alderman Temperley, who ran third among seven candidates two years ago, has some indication of his strength at the polls but whether he has gained over two years ago of whether some of his strength of two years ago will go to Alderman Goddard remains to be seen. The outcome depends entirely on the extent of the reputed loss which Representative Luitwieler will suffer—if any.

In the 4th Middlesex District Wards 1, 2, 3 and 7, there is practically no cannot be referred to be referred to be referred to the reputed loss which Representative cannot be referred to the referred

In the 4th Middlesex District Wards I, 2, 3 and 7, there is practically no campaigning being done. Representatives William B. Baker, and the writer, Warren K. Brimblecom, are being opposed by Robert G. Lawrence, a young Newtonville man, who has been active in organizing young Republican voters in that vicinity the last few years. It is generally believed that Mr. Lawrence will find it difficult to unseat either of the present Representatives and that he has an eye to capturing the pole in another two years in the event either might retire from office.

If you want to see a street letter tox located in front of your house, now is the time to put in the application. Postmaster Morgan has received official notice that free delivery in Wards 1 and 7 will be started on October 1st and houses must be numbered before that date. The district to be covered will include the whole of Wards 1 and 7, the residence of A. Lawrence Edmands in Ward 6, the years in the event either might retired by Dr. Utley.

Brief reference should also be made to the contest for the Republican nomination to a Sclerk of Courts. Following the death of John R. MacKinnon of Watertown the post was filled by Frederic L. Putnam of Melrose, assistant clerk of courts. In the contest for the nomination to fill the vacancy he is opposed by Edward J. Hamilton of Lowell. Here again it would seem that the preponderance of the vote being in Suburban Boston that the Melrose man will seceive the nomination.

things, Mr. Washburn stated that Mr. Cahill was a good man for the Republican party although he carefully refrained from writing any definite indication of support, having given similar columns to Johnson and other candidates. Although the Cahill candidacy is based largely upon the qualifications of the man for the job, many of those politically inclined see an added advantage to the Republican party in having a Saltonstall-Cahill ticket in the November campaign. However, the majority of Republicans are of Yankee stock and for no reason at all are perhaps more likely to vote for another candidate. Mr. Howard also gained added impetus in his final drive towards victory in an endorsement by ex-Governor Alvan T. Fuller. As in the Haigis for Johnson case, however, the endorsement may not count for as much as at first it might seem. Anyone's prediction on the outcome of this contest would be a pure guess and it most assuredly will not be known until the votes are counted.

The question which is agitating Upor Falls people at present is—"Is the barge to run to Newton High School pupils. The proprietor of the barge for the convenience of high school pupils. House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., August 31, 1888.

Dear Mr. Coffin:

Dear Mr. Coffin:

At last you will get the free delivery for Newton (as suggested, Wards 1, 7, etc.) by October 1st, I hope. But you must have the streets numbered at once, and may have to give up the little postoffice at Nonantum. I hope to be in Newton next week to look over the ground with you."

and Mr. Brimblecom also received the endorsement of the Taxpayers' Associations. So did Mr. Luitwieler, except on one vote, that on referring the matter of biennial sessions of the Legislature to a referendum. There is a belief, however, among a considerable percentage of the voters in the 5th District that Mr. Luitwieler should not be a candidate again. He is in his 77th year and has served in the Legislature for 14 years. Unless a man has a chieved unusual distinction in public life, and is in line for higher political preferment, 14 years is more than tenough. John Temperley has been a member of the Newton Board of Aldermen for the past 11 years and although frequently in the minority on matters which have come before the Board, he has gained a reputation for honesty and independence which won him repeated reelections in the face of strong opposition. Paul Goddard is serving his fifth year as a member of the Board of Aldermen and has been a capable and competent member of the City Government.

Wednesday night we listened on the leaves of strong opposition. Paul Goddard is serving his fifth year as a member of the City Government.

Many Newton residents who drive to places on Cape Cod and Southern Massachusetts use Green Lodge rd. in Canton from Route 128 to Route 128 at Ponkapoag. There is a large volume of traffic over this narrow road which is about 1½ miles in length. The condition of Green Lodge rd. has been growing increasingly bad for several years until now it is actually dangerous. The State should take measures to compel the Town of Canton to resurface the road, or more properly the State should or more properly the State should make this stretch of Green Lodge rd a State Highway, and widen it a State Highway, and widen it.

Several times in recent years we have called attention to the need of a high, wire fence around the old cemetery at Centre and Cotton sts. to protect that hallowed area where early settlers of Newton were buried. Formerly thinly settled, the area about the cemetery has been rapidly developed for home sites the past several years and there has been a resultant increase in trespassing by boys at the old burying ground. Colonial headstones have been broken and damaged, tombs have been desecrated. Last May Alderman Colby offered a resolution at a meeting of the Board of Aldermen asking the Mayor to take steps to have a fence erected surrounding the cemetery, and the burial place given proper attention. We were informed last year by a member of the D. A. R. that the Mayor had promised a couple of years ago to properly safeguard the old cemetery. But nothing has been done.

We asked Mr. J. J. Sullivan, a Newton fence builder to inform us as to

An increased scarcity of desirable rentals altered this feeling to some extent. In this connection Alvord Bros. report the sale of the two-family frames dwelling at 520-522 Commonwealth daye. He said we make one alibit today then tomorrow we have to make two or three more and so on. He claimed that at the age of six that we have all the mentality we need but wo must develop as the years come and go. He claims that only 5% of the total population really advances and that only another 5% assume real leadership.

He said that for nearly 40 years the Bell Telephone thought that one message only could be sent over a wire but now at least 190 messages can be sent which shows what can be done to increase efficiency. He said that many businesses spend money for advertising to get new business but fail to do anything to hold their old customers.

He said that if we know where we are it will help to determine where we will go. He predicted that business is bound to improve, even though there are many dark clouds on the horizon, for the reason that there is a big shortage of most all the necessities of life.

Angelo Brino of Pearl st., Everett, was arraigned in the Newton court on Tuesday charged with assaulting his brother-in-law, Henry Merrullo of 7 Lucas ct., West Newton. Merrullo told the court that he did not want to testify against Brino, but on police objection to the dropping of the case, Judge Murray ordered the trial to proceed. Merrullo testified that Brino had come to his home with two of his sisters and after scolding Merrullo for alleged unkindness to the latter's wife, Brino hit Merrullo on the jaw and knocked him out. Someone notified police headquarters and Patrolman Lyons went to the scene and arrested Brino. Judge Murray placed the case on file on condition that Brino pay $18 to the Newton Welfare Department to relimburse it for medical expenses paid to the Newton Mespital for treatment given Merrullo after the assault on him by Brino.

Prevents Fire In House, Burns Hand

Arthur Marchant of 34 Faxon st., Nonantum, prevented his home from becoming ablaze on Saturday evening when he seized a flaming wastebasket and carried it to the kitchen sink to turn the faucet on it, and received burns on his right hand in the act. In the meantime someone pulled an alarm from Box 245.

That combustible waste is still being deposited at the North st. dump in Newtonville, instead of being carried to the expensive incinerator built at Newton Highlands to eliminate the dump fire and nuisance, was again proved last Saturday afternoon when Engine 4 had to spend 2 hours at the dump extinguishing a fire there. Another rubbish fire in a dump at Winchester and Wallace sts., Newton Highlands, necessitated the firemen going to that locality on Saturday night at 9 o'clock. A defective flue caused a fire in a new house at 76 Anawan rd, Waban, last Sunday afternoon.

The Lleutenant Governorship
This contest between six candidates for the nomination is perhaps the most interesting on the G. O. P. state-wide ticket. Charles P. Howard and Horace T. Cahill are expected to come down the home stretch in a close race with ex-Judge Kenneth D. Johnson, Boston City Councillor Robert Gardiner Wilson, Jr., former Mayor Dewey G. Archambault and Belmont Selectman J. Watson Flett dividing the remainder of the vote, with Johnson and Wilson probable third place contenders. Howard probably has a slight advantage at present with endorsements of Ex-Gov. Fuller, Gen. Daniel Needham and numerous other prominent persons. There is no question of his ability to fill the position. Speaker Cahill's ability is unquestioned, also and there are many who believe that he has earned the undying gratitude of voters and taxpayers by the victorious fight against extravagant expenditure for roads which was sought by Governor Hurley in the long legislative session this past summer. These Cahill adherents point out that his leadership and the setback administered to the Governor saved Massachusetts from going the way of the New Deal in the expenditure of public funds.

As previously noted in these columns, Secretary of State Frederic W. Cook is unopposed for the Republican nomination and will again be among the Republican standard bearers in the November election.

William E. Hurley will undoubtedly be renominated for the position he has filled so ably for the past two years. His opposition from John J. Hurley of Revere and Alonzo B. Cook of Bos-ton can be regarded as practically neg-ligible.

Auditor

Russell A. Wood, Republican nominee of two years ago, should win handily from Carl D. Goodwin of Boston although the latter may poll a surprisingly large number of votes because of the similarity of his name with that of Frank L. Goodwin, registrar of motor vehicles and former candidate for state-wide office.

Attorney General

Attorney General

Although Clarence A. Barnes of Mansfield probably has a commanding lead over Howe Coolidge Amee of Cambridge, the latter may be successful in taking the nomination. As a Cambridge resident for many years he claims that he has the opportunity to prove that Attorney General Paul A.
Dever can be beaten. The third candidate, Frank F. Walters, a former Boston policeman, is believed to have

General opinion seems to be that this contest lies between Joseph C. White and James H. Brennan, both of Boston. With Councillor Edward T. Collins of Springfield and Mayor William P. Yoerg of Holyoke probably dividing much of the vote in the western part of the state, it does not seem possible that either has sufficient strength to cut into the huge Boston vote in which former Rep. Alexander
F. Sullivan will also figure.

Congressman, Night District

Congressman, Ninth District

F. Sullivan will also figure.

Congressman, Ninth District

Although there are five candidates in this field chances of victory are given to but two, former Alderman Dennis M. Cronin of Newton and Thomas H. Eliot of Cambridge. Eliot, a grandson of former Pres. Charles W. Eliot of Harvard and a son of Rev. Samuel Eliot, has waged a well-conducted campaign. His success among his fellow Democrats in a primary contest will probably be the result of his friendly affiliations with the national administration as a co-author of the Social Security Act. He has been endorsed locally by some members of the Newton Democratic City Committee. Alderman Cronin has worked diligently on an organization which he counts heavily upon. He has active units in every part of the district. The outcome is a toss-up at the present time. An interesting angle to the campaign which may be a deciding factor in the final analysis is that many Democrats feel that Mr. Ellot would have a better chance of defeating the Republican nominee than would Mr. Cronin.

Local interest is also taken in the campaign of James P. Aikens for Governor's Council in the third district. In the sixth councillor district, which comprises that part of Middlesex County from Somerville to Lowell one of fifteen candidates is Walter A. Hodgdon, former Newton alderman and unsuccessful candidate for mayor. He is a resident of Newton with a business in Somerville and under the State constitution does not have to live in the district to be a candidate. Robert J. Allen of Newton and Alfred R. Guzzi of West Newton, unopposed candidates for Representative in the 4th Middlesex district are as furned of the nominations.

She was born at San Donato, Frosinone, Italy 42 years ago and had lived in Newton for about 25 years. Her body was unidentified for 14 hours. When she did not arrive home at the expected time and her family read the description of the clothing on the woman killed in the crash, her husband went to Worcester and identified her remains. Oak Hill Protests Against Cemetery

Persons who are engaged in business at Newton Corner, or who have offices there, received letters last week from Rupert Thompson, secretary of the Newton Chamber of Commerce, asking them to co-operate in relieving the parking problem at Newton Corner by parking their cars, and having their employees park their cars in the new parking space at Pearl Court, instead of on Centre and Washington sts. The letter read:

"Now that we have a parking space that is ample to relieve the parking problem at the Corner, it becomes the daty of all members whose business is in the area that the parking space erves to see to it that we use the space to the best advantage.

"The claim has been made (and justly so) that the parking problem was a real drawback to the Newton Corner merchants. The Taylor Estate and the city together have produced the space and it's now up to every merchant to take full advantage of the situation.

"By keeping the cars of all those whose business is at the Corner off the streets, there will be ample room for shoppers. We cannot expect a miratole overnight, but I personally have no doubt that business will improve, People will soon realize that they can park at or near the store in which heavy wish to trade; when that happens you will find a pick-up in your business."

THE REPUBLICAN PRIMARY

It is the privileged duty of voters to go to the primaries next Tuesday and cast their votes for their choices. The primary in many respects is far more important than the November election particularly in that it gives the opportunity for the voter to make his selection of a candidate who believes in principles more or less akin to those to which he himself adheres. In the November election the choices have been narrowed down so that the voters' will must be to some extent limited to party affiliation.

In years past we have always expressed our choices and have endeavored to outline our reasons for such choices. The multiplicity of candidates makes it practically impossible for us to go to this length except in a few instances.

Repeated expressions of confidence in the ability, integrity, and sincerity of Leverett Saltonstall in the past make it unnecessary for us to reiterate at length his qualifications for the office of Governor. It is sufficient to state that there is no person more able to restore confidence, trust and efficiency in state government in Massachusetts than Mr. Saltonstall. And let no one say that the Republican party cannot win under his leadership. It can and will be done.

Horace T. Cahill is our choice for lieutenant governor. We believe that Mr. Cahill will be a greater asset to the Republican party in November than any other of the available choices. If ability alone were to be considered we would have difficulty in forming an opinion because there is little, if anything, that can be said against the qualifications of available candidates. Ability, plus many other qualifications lead us to support Speaker Cahill who so ably demonstrated his leadership during the recent legislative battle with Governor Hurley.

We again support Frank A. Brooks for the Governor's Council. He has not only done nothing to warrant replacement, but on the other hand has been a vigorous and forceful exponent of good government during four years of service in the Council and many years prior service in public positions.

Once again we are impelled to reaffirm our support of Congressman Robert Luce. Mr. Luce has given faithful and able service in most trying years. Another person in Congress at the present time would vote on every occasion as Mr. Luce has done during the present administration. Mr. Luce should be returned to carry on.

In the Representative contests we are impelled to state that we see no reason for a change in the 4th Middlesex district. Mr. Baker's record is well known and in our own service we believe we have expressed the viewpoint of the majority of the voters. In the 5th Middlesex district it would be presumptuous on our part to tell voters there whom they should elect to serve them. They have been well served in the past and they will be well served in the future in their choice of two of the

Like many other persons, interested in good government, we believe that Robert A. Bradford should be elected as District Attorney of Middlesex County. The conduct of our county law office should be above reproach and it is our feeling that Mr. Bishop has permitted politics to take an undue part in the proper administration of this important post.

Our vote for other offices will be cast as follows:

Treasurer-William E. Hurley.

Attorney General-Howe Coolidge Amee.

County Commissioner-Charles C. Warren.

Clerk of Courts-Frederic L. Putnam. Auditor-Russell A. Wood.

The few Democratic boys in Newton have decided to join the Harrison & Morton Cadets just for the in of the thing. One bright boy said the whole thing. One bright boy said the whole thing is just for fun anyway, and as they play ball and go to school with the Republican boys they may as well have the fun of belonging to the campaign marching club. There's youthful philosophy for the Democratic minority in Newton.

NOMINATE BRADEN

The Republican Who Can Win on Election Day

The only way to elect a Republican County Commissioner in Middlesex County in November is to nominate a man next Tucsday who has been successful in defeating Democrat opponents at the polls.

Two years ago the voters of the Eighth Middlesex District elected Thomas H. Braden as Senator—and he replaced a Democrat who had held that office for two years. Senator Braden's home city of Lowell is Demo-cratic by 5000 votes and yet the voters elected him as Mayor for two terms—and he replaced a Democrat.

For two years Senator Braden has served as Chairman of the Committee on Counties. He will bring to the office of County Commissioner an intimate knowledge of the needs of the county.

Middlesex County has two districts — the Northern District and the Southern District. Senator Braden lives in the Northern District and he appeals to the fairness of the voters to nominate a man from the Northern Dis-trict. This District has not been represented on the Board of County Commissioners since the death of Hon. Erson

Senator Braden Possesses a Successful Business Background. Senator Braden Possesses An Unblemished Record of Public Service. Senator Braden is Experienced and well qualified to protect and conserve your interests.

Every effort is being made to restore complete electric service to all areas as soon as humanly possible.

The damage to circuits caused by falling trees is enormous, but trouble spots are being located and relayed to the repair forces, and emergency repairs are being rapidly completed. In many instances, of course, the Edison Company will not be permitted to put the electricity on its lines until the municipal authorities of cities and towns have given permission, in order that additional hazards may not be created. If there is damage on the property of the customer, such as a broken or displaced service pipe, he must have repairs made immediately by his local contractor, so that no additional delay will ensue.

Buildings Commissioner Campbell, on recommendation of Mayor Childs, has named the firm of Robb & Little of Boston as architects of the new branch library which will be erected on Walnut st., Newtonville. E. Donald Robb of 39 Grove Hill ave, Newtonville, a member of the firm, has been a resident of this city for many years. He held a conference last Friday with Mr. Campbell, trustees of the Newton Free Library, and officers of the Newtonville Improvement Association. The proposed library building will be of the Georgian type and will have a basement, main floor and mezzanine. Its estimated cost will be $110,000, not including the land. Of this amount the PWA grant will be 45 per cent, or $49,500. Early this month word was received from PWA officials that the application of the City of Newton for such a grant had been approved. As work on the project must be started within 8 weeks from the time the PWA grant is received and accepted, a special meeting of the Board of Aldermen was called by Mayor Childs, and was held on Tuesday night.

The special meeting was called to take action on the offer of the Newtonville Library Association for the donation to the city as the site for the library of about 3,000 square feet of land at the corner of Walnut st. and Highland ave; the widening of Walnut st. and Highland ave; the widening of the PWA grant; and the authorization of a bond issue of $66,000, proceeds to be used in constructing, equipping and furnishing the library building. The site where the branch library will be erected was formerly occupied by the Newton Club, for years Newton's leading social organization. One reason for the selection of this expensive site was—that it is expected to act as a buffer for some years to come between the business section which proposed and grant should be used to make the subscisse section which proposed and grant sand the subscisse section which proposed and business section which proposed consequence of the proposed in the selection of this expensive site was—that it is expected

Hurricane Wreaks Havoc In Newton---Thousands of Large Trees Destroyed

Scores of Houses Damaged-Property Losses Will Amount To Many Thousands of Dollars

The tropical hurricane which devastated New England on Wedness day caused more damage in Newton than perhaps in any part of Greater Boston for the reason that this city contained a greater number of shade trees than any other community in this vicinity. Thousands of beautiful elms, maples, oaks and other species of trees were blown over or torn apart, and in falling they caved in roofs, crushed porches, and pulled down thousands of wires all over the city. Hundreds of houses were damaged, many of them seriously. An example is the home of Patrick Considine at the corner of Church and Richardson sts. Newton, where a huge elm toppled onto the house and crushed in one side of the roof.

SINCERITY, INTEGRITY AND TRUTH

Throughout the primary campaign which ended on Tuesday the Saltonstall keynote has been sincerity, integrity and truth. No words of ours could add emphasis to the fact that these qualities typify the character, personality and motives of Leverett Saltonstall. His success at the polis, although expected, was so overwhelming that it lends great encouragement to the Republican party as a whole that through Mr. Saltonstall the great state of Massachusetts will return to honest and decent government. For too many years political influences have played too great a part in the administration of the state's affairs. We know Leverett Saltonstall well enough to appreciate the fact that as Governor he will conduct that office for the best interests of all of its citizens and not for the selfish interests of a few.

Rumblings of discontent over the nomination of former Governor Curley have already been heard among many Democrats. Many of them will vote for Saltonstall beyond question. Some of them have informed us that that was their intention. These voters are among many who have found that their previous support of Democratic candidates has been of no benefit. They are now willing to "take a chance" on Saltonstall. However, it is not a chance that they take, but a certainty that their welfare will be uppermost in the mind and heart of Governor Saltonstall. Those who know him have nothing but praise for his ability, his sincerity, and his character, and

Already the issue is clear. Through Saltonstall we will have honest, decent, and efficient government. Were the election to be held next Tuesday he would literally sweep the state. Will the oratory, promises, and political strategies of his twicedefeated opponent weaken his cause? There can be no reason why they should because sincerity, integrity and the truth will

AN ILL WIND

The hurricane of Wednesday night once again reveals the frailty and impotence of the human race against the elements of nature. The devastating wind, bringing greater disaster than anything ever experienced in Newton, in Massachusetts or in New England, created almost inestimable damage. Thousands of magnificent trees were ruined, uprooted, literally torn asunder by the ravaging force. Hundreds of gardens, beautiful with fall blooms a few days ago, are nothing but a shambles today. Many homes were damaged when shingles were torn from their roofs, huge trees were felled upon them, windows were shattered, and garage doors were twisted off, utility services were disrupted when wires were carried down and power shut off to prevent further damage from fire.

As we drove along some of the streets of the Garden City yesterday morning we tried to compare what we saw with the situation that must exist in other communities. Many of these communities were set upon by tidal wave, seething rivers, fire, and other disasters far more serious than experienced here in Newton. What must it be? Disheartening to think of, dismaying to behold.

Yet there is an old saying to the effect that an ill wind blows some good. While we cannot account for the reasons that such disasters descend upon us we can find solace in the fact that there is work to be done in the clearing up and repairing of some of the damage. Nature, herself, will take a hand and although nature works more slowly than man there will come a time when order is restored and the scars are

The Primary Results

The Republican party in Massachusetts has gained tremendous impetus in Massachusetts as the result of the overwhelming Saltonstall victory. The fact that about 75 per cent of the Republican vote on Tuesday was given to Newton's foremost citizen is indicative of the fact that there is unity in to Newton's foremost citizen is indicative of the fact that there is unity in the ranks of the G. O. P. Considerable stress is laid upon the surprising showing of Candidate McMasters, who ran second, leading Richard Whitcomb whose showing was far weaker than expected. Many persons feel that there is a real threat to Republican success in November in the McMasters' independent candidacy and his advocacy of the Townsend pension plan. Others point out that the McMasters' vote on Tuesday was simply an expression of opinion in support of the Townsend plan and that in November many of these same Republicans will many of these same Republicans will vote for Saltonstall, knowing that a Townsend vote at that time might well

It was conceded that several of the larger cities would give him more votes than either Hurley or Kelly and it was clear that he would defeat the present Governor for the Democratic nomination when he ran surprisingly well in numerous towns, and even carrying some of them. Other highlights of the Curley victory were his huge lead in Boston, and a plurality in Cambridge the home city of Governor Hurley. It was the first time in the history of either major political party in this state that a gubernatorial candidate seeking a second term was refused. The Curley victory, therefore, has split the Democratic party wide open with a breach that it may be impossible to heal in the few weeks which remain before the weeks which remain before the November election. Most political observers see real strength. one republican ticket many assets to go with those of Saltonstall. Most political observers see real strength and, better still from a Republican standpoint, no weakness in a Salton-stall-Cahill ticket. Speaker Cahill was largely responsible for the Republican largely responsible for the Republican legislature's victory over Governor Hurley in the use of highway funds and there are many who feel that the loss of this battle was the major factor in Governor Hurley's defeat. Unquestionably Cahill's leadership and the attendant publicity and favorable impression which the voters obtained of his ability was the major factor in his selection as the Republican nominee.

H. Brennan of Charlestown won a close fight over School Committeeman incosph C. White of Boston for the second place on the Democratic ticket. As noted in these columns the race narrowed down to these two with the cossibility that Councillor Edward Collins of Springfield might pull hrough if the Boston vote was split typenly between the two leaders and Candidate Sullivan. With Brennan colling 139,000, White 132,000 and Sullivan only 66,000 a total of about $5,000 was insufficient for Mr. Collins. Having failed to unseat Secretary of State Frederic W. Cook in the past several campaigns with a male candidate the Democratic party this year has nominated Mrs. Katherine B. Foey a State Representative from Lawrence. She had a 7,000 plurality over her nearest rival, William F. Sullivan of Boston.

Treasurer William E. Hurley was their choice for that office. The surprise feature of this contest was their choice for that office. The surprise feature of this contest was the large vote polled by Alonzo B. Cook. In a free-for-all contest for the Democratic nomination between eight can. that office.

As was expected Russell Wood captured the Republican nomination as auditor and Thomas E. Buckley the Democratic nomination. A Republican victory at the head of the ticket in November may put Wood into office as well although Buckley is a strong vote-getter. Mr. Wood can be relied upon to bring strength to the ticket in his own behalf and will not need to be "carried" by the rest of the ticket.

Probably only a Republican sweep, easerly sought by the G. O. P. and not altogether an impossibility, will recapture the office of Attorney General. Clarence A. Barnes of Mansfield won the Republican nomination as was expected and will oppose the present incumbent, Paul A. Dever, who was renominated without opposition.

This completes the so-called Big Six picture of Statewide primary results. In every Congressional district the present incumbents came through with present incumbents came through with renominations. In the ninth district, of which Newton is a part, Robert Luce again successfully repelled the campaign of Edward M. Rowe by an almost 2 to 1 margin. Although Thomas Eliot, new-dealer, friend of Pres. Roosevelt, and grandson of former Pres. Eliot of Harvard, apparently defeated former Alderman Dennis M. Cronin of Newton by 223 votes for the Democratic nomination, there will probably be a ecount before the outcome is definitely settled.

The defeat of Warren L. Bishop as the Republican nominee for District
Attorney by Robert Bradford, although Attorney by Robert Bradford, although not unexpected, was surprising because of the Bradford plurality of about 20,000 votes. Bradford drew strength from almost every city and town in the district, carrying Bishop's own town of Wayland and other towns in the vicinity as much as 9 to 1 in some cases. Newton gave Bradford a good plurality as did other cities in the district with the exception of Somerville which Bishop carried.

The local contests for State Representative in the 4th Middlesex district resulted, as was expected, with the renomination of Representative William B. Baker and Warren K. Brimblecom., The third candidate, Robert G. Lawrence, polled 1,600 votes or less than half of that of either his opponents.

In the 5th Middlesex district the defeat of Rep. Clarence S. Luitwieler was of chief interest. Rep. Francis was renominated and Alderman Paul N. Goddard defeated Mr. Luitwieler for the second position. Alderman Temperley ran fourth. In this contest a well-organized campaign by Mr. Goddard resulted in his selection.

Doc, I bought these teeth at a bargain but I want you to put them in!

IMAGINE the amazement of your dentist if you went to him with a set of "store teeth" you purchased at a bargain and asked him to fit them in your mouth.

Your dentist knows that your health, comfort and well-being depend upon his ability to select teeth which will exactly meet your individual requirements-perfect matching of the teeth to assure a natural appearance and expert fitting to afford satisfactory service for many years.

Neither good teeth nor good plumbing can be purchased economically "over the counter". Plumbing fixtures too, must be of assured quality, carefully selected to meet your requirements, harmoniously matched to enhance the appearance of your home and installed by experienced hands to assure health protection, satisfactory service and real economy.

Good plumbing is vital to the health of your family for it means the delivery of pure water and the safe removal of dangerous waste health of your family alone, because water contamination can endanger the health of an entire community. Good plumbing is so vital that you should be sure that your present plumbing is good.

A Newton Centre girl achieved national recognition recently when it was announced by the Danforth Fellowship Foundation that Miss Justina Crosby, 49 Clinton place, had been awarded the 1938 Home Economics Danforth Fellowship for two weeks leadership training camp at Shelby, Mich. The summer scholarships are given jointly by the Ralston Purina Mills, and William H. Danforth, founder and chairman of the board of this national feed and cereal organization.

Miss Crosby arrived in St. Louis July 17. For two weeks she was a member of one of the most representative groups of home economics students in the United States. With junior girls representing 33 leading state colleges she had the opportunity to view the "inside" of big business and study the relationship between home economics and industry, and learn of the opportunities now open for young women with a home economics background.

The first two weeks of Miss Crosby's trip as winner of the fellowship, was spent in St. Louis going on inspection trips of large wholesale, manufacturing and industrial plants, research laboratories, department stores and the problems of institutional and hotel management which was studied under experts. A trip to a large experimental farm was included in the schedule.

The last two weeks were spent at the American Youth Foundation Lead.

The last two weeks were spent at the American Youth Foundation Leadership Training Camp on Lake Michigan. Leadership courses for personality development and enlargement of abilities were taught by nationally known educators, ministers, and professional men and women. A well planned recreational program was coupled with study at this camp where hundreds of young women meet annually for a fortnight of training and fellowship.

While in St. Louis Miss Crosby was entertained by Miss Kathrine Green, a former classmate from Newton High School, now living in St. Louis. En route from St. Louis to Shelby, Michigan, Miss Crosby stopped over in Chicago to visit Dr. and Mrs. Washburn, very dear friends of her mother. The return trip was made by way of Canada, down through Niagara Falls and the Finger Lakes in upper New York State arriving home Aug-

A fire occurred in a vacant house at 953 Watertown st., West Newton, about 11:30 Sunday night. It burned a hole in the living room floor and caused considerable smoke damage. Spontaneous cumbustion in a pile of sawdust was supposed to be the cause of the blaze, and the damage was estimated at $500. The house is owned by Joseph Edwards and workmen had been renovating it.

timo the ambulance could not be freed until neighbors had come out and assisted in freeing it from the tree. The fire alarm system was partly affected by the falling wires and Chief Randlett has advised residents to use both fire alarm boxes and telephones in case of fire, so that if the former are not working, the alarms will be received by means of telephone. On Wednesday night a fire occurred in the cellar of the house at 27 Otis st., occupied by Stanley Horton. Another small fire occurred in the home of Joseph Armstrong, 36 Vernon st., Newton, at 7:50. It was caused by a lighted candle. At 9:08 firemen were called to an unoccupied house at 1538 Beacon st., Waban, where oily rags had caused spontaneous combustion. An alarm at 7:52 was for a chimney fire in the home of Joseph Garabedian, 53 Mechanic st., Upper Falls. Firemen worked Wednesday night assisting the Street Department in clearing the streets of debris. The blocking of many important streets, as well as scores of side streets, caused a very serious fire hazard. Persons are warned to exercise great care in the use of candles, and to watch out for short circuits in their homes when the electrical service is connected again.

All the employees of the Street Detime the ambulance could not be freed until neighbors had come out and short circuits in their homes when the electrical service is connected again.

All the employees of the Street Department worked through Wednesday night and have been almost continually laboring since under the constant supervision of Acting Street Commissioner McCarthy. They have done remarkably well in clearing streets which were blocked by large trees. It is a difficult task to cut through the trunks of huge elms and big maples which fell across the width of many streets, especially when large limbs had to be sawed before the tree trunks could be cut into sections and removed. Persons who have been impatient because the Forestry or Street Department employees have not arrived to remove trees from their yards, or from driveways, must remember that the first task was to clear streets which had been made impassable. Streets had to be cleared for the fire apparatus, ambulances or other emergency vehicles. Many requests were sent to the Street Department for employees to rush to this or that location to get a tree off some roof, to make a driveway accessible, or to save some tree which had tilted over at a 45 degree angle, and might be lifted up again. The city employees are working under top pressure, have been doing a good job, but must attend to the most urgent needs first, It should be remembered that they cannot attend to fallen trees or limbs that are on private property. Some practical persons have sent requests that fallen trees on streets, when they have been cut into sections, be deposited on lots adjoining the requestees' homes, so that they can be used for fireplace fuel the coming winter. adjoining the requestees' homes, so that they can be used for fireplace fuel cut into sections, be deposited on lots adjoining the requestees' homes, so that they can be used for fireplace fuel the coming winter.

Health Officer Chope states that the milk supply of Newton is adequate and is being properly pasteurized. The department checked up on Thursday with all the dealers, and assisted in making arrangements for the pasteurization of milk for some of the smaller dealers, who had been affected by the failure of the electrical service. Markets and groceries dependent on electrical refrigeration were ordered to prevent fresh foods from becoming tainted by using either ice or dry ice.

The 32 troops of Boy Scouts in Newton have rendered valuable assistance since the storm. Wednesday night a large number of the older boys patrolled streets in the city watching for fires, and warning pedestrians and motorists of obstructions on streets. These boys remained on duty until 4 a. m. Thursday. On Thursday between 700 and 800 Boy Scouts, mostly in ordinary attire, worked in their own neighborhoods helping to clear fallen limbs and branches from streets. The Sea Scout Troop gave valuable assistance to the Metropolitan District Police by cruising in their power boat along the Charles River Basin between Faneuil and Boston helping to save many boats from being destroyed.

By request of Chief Randlett of the Police Department members of Company to save many boats from being destroyed.

By request of the city had their roofs partly denuded of shingles, and scores of chimneys have been damaged.

The service of the Boston Edison Company has been crippled since the storm. Wednesday night buildings at the Newton Corner business section at mild parts of the city had their roofs partly denuded of shingles, and scores of chimneys have been damaged.

The service of the Boston Edison Company has been crippled since the storm. Wednesday night buildings at the Newton Corner business section supplied by underground service has lights, but the remainder of the city was in darkness. Hundreds attempted to purchase kerosene lamps on Thursday, only to find that these old fashioned articles could not be procured. Those who had lamps found that the limited supply of kerosene in Newton was quickly sold out during the day. Some resorted to the use of range oil in the lamps and stated it is practical. Hardware stores also sold out their stocks of axes and saws.

Fortunately few gas leaks have occurred as a result of trees being uproted. One was reported at 75 Summer st., Newton Centre. The entire police force has been on duty since the storm and many citizens offered their services, if needed. George Rogers, head of the Forestry Division of the Newton Street Department estimates

Damage Caused by Hurricane Augments Newton's Already Serious Financial Problems

Finance Committee Confers With Department Heads In Effort To Make Provisions for Emergency

The hurricane of September 21st which uprooted thousands of trees along along Newton streets, and upheaved adjoining sidewalks caused a serious condition in the city's finances. Realizing the condition of the city's finances and the added, unexpected burden the hurricane damage created, Alderman Donald McKay, chairman of the Finance Committee of the Board of Alderman Donald McKay, chairman of Alderman Donald McKay, chairman of Alderman called a meeting of that committee at his home last Sunday afternoon and requested City Solicitor Bartlett to be present. On Monday morning Alderman McKay visited Mayor Childs at City Hall and discussed the situation with him. On Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock the Finance Committee held a meeting at City Hall and conferred with most of the city department heads to obtain knowledge of the damage caused by the hurricane to city streets, parks, playgrounds and public buildings, and to ascertain what co-operation could be given by the various departments. Harold Young was also present, representing the WPA.

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen on Monday night, following a long recess, Alderman McKay addressed the Board on the financial condition of the city. He said:

"The items we have before us to-night fall into two classes: the Emergency Loan occasionad by the recent catastrophe is in one class, and the Tax Title Loan and appropriations from a subsequent welfare loan which will come before us soon, fall into the other class. I would like to take up the tax title loan first, and bear in mind the discussion of this is entirely apart from the emergency loan. First—I would like to read three paragraphs from the Finance Committee report made in April, 1938, which the Board accepted. They are as follows—Unless the Mayor submits certain substantial departments at the last minute for consideration by this Board at its meeting on Monday evening, April 11, there must necessarily be an exhaustion of funds later during the year, which will either have to be carried over into next year's tax levy, or offset in whole or in part by department surpluses accruing through operative economies. The latter possibility is very remote. We refer to such further outlays as welfare, soldier's relief, damage claims, WPA materials, snow removal, etc.'

Red Cross Appeals For Relief Funds

The American National Red Cross has asked for a minimum of $500,000 to help towards disaster and rehabilitation work in the flood and hurricane area. Washington Headquarters started this with $25,000 from their disaster fund. However the seriousness of the situation requires a special appeal to the whole country. The Newton Chapter has been given a quota of $2500. We earnestly hope that Newton people will be as generous now as in other grave situations and send their contributions to Chapter Headquarters—12 Austin st., Newtonville

If you are still without electric service, we ask your continued patience and tolerance. We are working as fast as humanly possible to restore the services of all customers. The hurricane of September 21 blew down nearly 1000 of our poles, and falling trees broke thousands of spans along our 15,000 miles of distribution wires. The task of rehabilitation is so enormous that we have had to call for the assistance of experienced line crews from distant cities, some 500 miles from Boston. We shall keep these crews on the job continuously until every electric service has been restored.

MEMBER M the most interesting and revealing phases of the storm has been the effective clearing away of much of the debris and fallen trees by the hundreds of workers employed in this work. Street department employees reinforced by the emergency transfer of several hundreds of WPA workers have accomplished a great amount of work. The work has been done under the direction of Acting Street Commissioner Charles Mc-Carthy and Forestry Superintendent Geo. Rogers, and in turn by a number of WPA supervisors. Their directive energies and able handling displayed by them in one of the most unique situations ever experienced in Newton is deserving of much commendation.

AN IMPATIENT FEW

While on the subject of the hurricane we believe a word of commendation is due to employees of the public utility companies who have worked many long and weary hours striving to restore service to customers and subscribers. It has been no sinecure to repair the untold damage and to bring order out of the chaos that existed a week ago Thursday morning. It was unquestionably the worst situation that ever confronted these companies since their organization. The public at large has displayed a patient attitude in awaiting resumption of services which in this day and age have become almost a necessity. They have found, however, that there are ways of getting by in an emergency. There have been a few persons who have growled and criticized at the delay. One cannot change human nature and thus about all that can be done with these thoughtless and unappreciative few is to pay no attention to their grumblings. The stupendous task has been tackled with an orderliness and precision that in reality is remarkable.

The Newton quota of the Red Cross hurricane relief fund is $2,500. Although Newton was severely hit as far as property damage is concerned very little human suffering has been experienced. In other parts of the stricken area, in addition to the wind there were tidal waves, fire and flood. Loss of life has passed the five hundred figure and is still mounting. There are persons who lost everything. In the past Newton has always responded generously to the call of the Red Cross. We are confident that we will do so again. WELL DONE-THOU FAITHFUL SERVANT

It is often said of many men who have passed to the Great Beyond-"Well done, thou good and faithful servant." The late Dr. MacLure is most certainly deserving of this encomium. For nearly fifty years he served his Church and people and for more than two decades his work was performed in this community. During these years he not only made many friends but he gave wise counsel to those who brought their problems to him. There was that something in his soul that gave him an understanding of his fellow men that few men possess Though he has gone from this material world his influence will long remain.

CONGRATULATIONS ARE IN ORDER

The Newton South Co-operative Bank, observing its twentyfifth anniversary, has opened its new quarters at Newton Highlands. Planned for greater service this Newton financial institution was organized by a group of public-spirited and civic-minded citizens in 1913. At that time all of the cooperative banks were located on the north side of the city, and it was felt that with the rapid growth of the southern sections of the city that similar facilities were needed. That the Newton South Co-operative Bank has met this need is demonstrated in its sound condition and its steady growth. Of the original board of seventeen directors four are still active on the board. At its organization meeting Clarence S. Luitwieler was elected president and has served continuously in that capacity. To its president, its original directors and officers, and to those who have since taken on such duties, congratulations are in order. We are pleased to add our best wishes for the continued success of the Newton South Co-operative Bank.

Dr. Judd has just returned from an extended visit in Northwest China, and as an eye-witness, he is well qualified to describe what is really going on in China today. It is a tale which the people of the United States who have been traditional friends of the Chinese, will do well to heed. What part is our nation contributing to prolong this most inhuman and unprovoked of wars?
Dr. Judd, who is on an extensive lecture tour in the United States, deals with these questions in a thrilling and authoritative way.

Powers' Paragraphs

Newton, we observed a flock of about twenty tern flying over Richardson st., Newton, bucking the already strong breeze in an effort to proceed easterly toward their natural habitat. We commented to a person standing near that we had never before seen tern flying over Newton, although we had sometimes observed sea-gulls along the Charles River. We woned dered at the unusual occurrence at the time, but the hurricane which followed a few hours later was the explanation. Either the tern instinctively flew inward to escape the fury of the storm, or what is more probable, they were caught in some current of air and blown inland.

According to Edison officials Newton was hit harder by the hurricane than any other place in Greater Boston because this city contains more trees than any other community in this section. It was remarkable that the thousands of trees and huge limbs which were blown down by the big wind, did not kill or injure some residents of the Newtons. Many persons, adults as well as children, were strolling along the streets during the height of the hurricane, nonchasons, adults as well as thirden, were strolling along the streets during the height of the hurricane, noncha-lantly sightseeing. They did not re-alize the danger that hovered around them. It is also fortunate that no one was electrocuted by fallen wires, alive with current. This danger is still extant and everyone should heed the warnings advertised by the Edison Company to avoid broken or dangling wires, or wires lying on the executed.

Had cold weather set in after the Had cold weather set in after the hurricane there would have been plenty of shivering by the thousands of persons whose homes are warmed by oil-heaters, and who have had no electric current coming into their houses for a week or more. Oil heaters have their advantages. But their dependency on electricity is one disadvantage.

On the day of the hurricane, a cou-ple of hours before the tempest hit Newton, we observed a flock of about sion to savagery as evidenced by the mania of a few men. And the reversion to savagery as evidenced by the bombardments of cities in Spain and China, would make a general European war more frightful than anything in history. The time has come for the people of all civilized nations to join in making it practically impossible for a small number of rulers or politicians in any country to plunge that nation into wholesale, stupid murders which is known as war. Had that nation into wholesale, stupid mur-ders which is known as war. Had England and France displayed as stiff an attitude a couple of years ago. Hitler's ambitions and arrogance would have been curbed.

The petition of the Boston & Albany Railroad asking the Newton Board of Aldermen to place in a business zone a narrow strip of land owned by the railroad along Washington st. in the vicinity of Crafts st., will meet with strong opposition. Fortyfour years ago Washington st. was widened between Newton and West Newton, and the B. & A. tracks were depressed to end grade crossings in this city. Many parcels of real estate between Newton and West Newton were selzed because of the widening of the street and the lowering of the railroad tracks. Persons' homes were taken from them and business blocks were razed. The only private piece of property remaining in the two miles from Centre ave., Newton to Felton st., West Newton was that of the Brackett Coal Company, opposite the Catholic church at Newton. This property was abandoned as a coal yard several years ago, became an eyesore, and this year the old buildings there were torn down. The types of business which would be located on the narrow strip of land which the railroad seeks to have placed in a business zone, would be housed in buildings that would change this attractive main street into an eyesore, and create a very serious traffic hazard on an automobile highway already the most dangerous in this city. Parishioners of the Church of Our Lady will oppose the petition of the Boston & Albany.

The Street Department (including the frection of Acting Street Commissioner Charles McCarthy and Sup. The employees of the Street Department faced a very difficult and dangerous task, and one that entailed hard labor. They have functioned in a way that has won widespread approval from citizens of Newton.

Hundreds of Newton Boy Scouts did their bit after the hurricane by patrolling streets for two nights after the storm, and by helping to clear streets and yards of debris. They worked effectively and unostentatiously and added to the prestige of their organization.

Form Committee To Save Trees

An organization has been formed in this city in an effort to save a large number of trees which were damaged in the recent hurricane. It is known in the recent hurricane. It is known as the "Restore Newton's Trees Committee" and it is working in conjunction with various improvement associations throughout the city. The members of the committee include the presidents of the following improvement associations—William E. Soule, Chestnut Hill; Albert M. Chandler, Newton Centre; Charles N. Davis, Oak Hill; Henry J. Corcoran, Lower Falls; Fred Farrington, Upper Falls; Charles P. Slocum, Newton Highlands; John Underhill, Waban; Rodney C. Eaton; L. A. Bruce, Jr., Secretary.

because trees that have neaved and settled back may have left earth cracks or air pocekts under the roots. During the winter, the freezing will cause roots to break off if such conditions exist, and you may lose your trees by neglecting to have a thorough inspection made at this time. Later on, such questions as pruning out broken limbs and the necessary bracing and cabling should be taken up, not only in order to save the tree, but to prevent injury to human beings and damage to property. In this connection, it is important to know how to best cut off the limbs, and the proper use of tree healing paint.

Because of the weakened condition in which trees and shrubs will be left, a satisfactory program for the next few years should be set up and followed, including spraying, feeding, etc.

tiny creatures smaller than a dog.
As they spread through Europe they As they spread through Europe they grew to their present size during thousands of years. But those horses which went to the Shetland islands north of Britain, found the winters severe, food scant and life hard. They grew long shaggy coats, became smaller and smaller. Yet, those ponies once were full-sized horses.

President Who Never Voted
It is supposed that Zachary Taylor never voted in his life. He was a Virginian by birth, entered the army in his early twenties, where he remained until a short time before his election to the presidency. He never stayed in one place long enough to qualify for voting. And Taylor did not attach himself very firmly to any political party or faction. Though elected as a Whig, the party managers had great difficulty in getting him to say definitely that he was a Whig. Up to the last days of the campaign he insisted that if elected he "would not be the President of the whole people."

Safety Education In Newton Schools

The Safety Education Committee appointed to revise the safety program for the public schools of Newton, through its chairman, Raymond A. Green, has submitted a comprehensive program to Supt. of Schools Warren. The report fills 86 typewritten pages and a number of copies have been mimeographed for distribution to teachers. On Highway Safety in the grade schools, safety from the pedestrian point of view has been stressed, in junior high schools from the bleyclists point of view, and in the senior high school from the automobile driver's point of view, touching on the legal rights of the pedestrian as well as the automobilist. Many of the practices outlined in the program have been in operation for a large part of the program have been in the automobilist. Supt. of Schools Warren in the foreword to the "Guide for Safety Education" which is the title given to the program, says: "It is the conviction of the School Department that this material, so well organized and brought together, will go far toward making the public school program a stronger force than it has een in the prevention of accidents, and en in the prevention of accidents, and een in the prevention of accidents, and in the development of safe and sane behaviour on the part of this and coming school generations."

Under the caption—"The Problem of Safety;"—the report says:

I. Acknowledgments:

May your committee thank the many teachers, supervisors, principals, the superintendent, and the Health Department for their many helpful susgestions, for their untiring efforts, and for their zeal in helping the cause for greater safety. To the teachers in the classroom and to those who lead the boys and girls to a safer enjoyment of life will go the satisfaction of a work well done and the unspoken thanks of future adults. May this guide help to that end.

II. The Problem of Safety:

The "Guide to Safety Instruction in the Newton Schools" is based on the principle that "to live safely and to help others to live safely and to help in the same adult.

To live safely and sanely in this rapidly changing world is a matter of vital concern to all human beings regardless of age. The child of today, thrilling to life with all its hazards and conscious of his responsibilities to others, fired with the desire to live safely and to help others to live safely and in the problems of safety will be vital its hazards and conscious of his responsibilities to others, fired with the desire to live safel

FITZGERALD HURT IN OPENING GAME

Newton High opened its 1938 football season last week Friday afternoon at Russell Field, North Cambridge, with a scoreless tie in a Suburban league encounter with the Cambridge Latin eleven. The 0-0 affair was a bitter pill for the orange and black lads to swallow as the local aggregation had figured upon getting off to a flying start in defence of the Suburban league title which it has held for the past two years. But an even worse calamity befell Coach Sanborn's prospects when Co-Captain Johnny Fitzgerald suffered a broken collar-bone near the end of the first period, The injury to the Newton lad, apparently destined to become one of the outstanding schoolboy halfbacks of the season, will keep him sidelined for at least a month and Newton officials will be gratified to have him in shape for the Waltham and Brookline contest late in November.

To encourage wholesome attitudes that will make for the choosing safe rather than dangerous activities.

To develop an attitude of respect for the rights and property of others.

To inculcate an attitude of responsibility for the safety of others.

Tô fire the child with the desire to "do" intelligently.

To establish right attitudes toward law and order. In subsequent issues of the GRA-HIC, details of the Safety Program for the elementary grades, junior high schools and the senior high school will
